

The Fund for West Palm Beach Police honors leading donors

Members of The Fund for West Palm Beach Police improve the quality of life in the city by supporting public safety programs and promoting excellence in police performance.

Sunday, Dec. 3 – The Bristol Palm Beach, West Palm Beach

On Dec. 3 The Bristol Palm Beach hosted a reception to honor leading donors of The Fund for West Palm Beach Police (The Fund). Guests were inspired by comments from The Fund Chairman, Al Adelson and West Palm Beach Police Chief Frank Adderley, who spoke about the success that the department has experienced reducing crime in the city. The Fund President, Bill Bone, recognized the organization's council members, key supporters in attendance who together contributed more than $500,000 last year to support The Fund's projects.

Officers of The Fund in attendance included Vice Chair Robert Garvy, Treasurer Tyler Schapiro, and Executive Committee member Ronnie Pertnoy. Other directors and council members in attendance were Don Carter, Don Chester, Paco Gil, Tangley Lloyd, Bill Meyer, Tommy Morrison, Ray Richards, Janice Savin Williams, Ann-Marie Taylor, Robert Tillis, William Wolcott, Tom Zacharias, and Palm Beach County Commissioner Gregg Weiss. In addition to Police Chief Adderley, special guests from the West

Palm Beach Police Department included Deputy Chief Rick Morris, Assistant Chief Anthony Spatara, Lt. Lori Colombino, Sgt. James Lewis, and officers Rodney Archer and Seth Buxton.

Recent programs and community initiatives supported by The Fund include providing hot meals to home-bound seniors and people with disabilities on Thanksgiving and Christmas, community pop-up events, Shop with a Cop, Cops & Scholars, Operation PUSH, Police Explorers, scholarships, Run with the Cops, the Victims Assistance Fund, Policemen vs. Firemen basketball game, and a Youth Skills Camp.

Members of the community are encouraged to join The Fund and help the West Palm Beach Police. The public's donations directly support superior policing and improves the relationship between the police and the community with the goal of reducing crime by increasing the assistance of residents in high-crime areas who have historically been reluctant to report crime for fear of reprisal.
